

Neonatal Society and Fetal & Neonatal Physiological Society Joint Summer Conference

19-21st June 2024

University of Nottingham, UK

Fetal and Neonatal
Physiological Society

The unmissable Perinatal Conference of 2024

- 3-day international perinatal conference
- State-of-the-art science and clinical research
- Two stunning auditoriums for parallel sessions
- World leading keynote speakers
- Society team competition and summer BBQ
- Spectacular Gala Conference Dinner
- Multiple early career researcher awards
- Over 60 oral abstract presentation slots
- Celebration – FNPS 50th & NNS 65th anniversaries

REGISTRATION NOW OPEN:

<https://store.nottingham.ac.uk/conferences-and-events/conferences/schools-and-departments/medicine/joint-fetal-and-neonatal-society-conference-2024>

Limited early bird places – scan now!

Outline Programme

Keynote Plenary Speakers confirmed (others pending):

Professor Marian Knight, Professor of Maternal and Child Health Population – University of Oxford/NIHR Director of Research Infrastructure – "Determinants of neonatal outcomes from pre-conception to birth"

Professor Anthony Costello, Professor of Global Health and Sustainable Development, University College London – "How can we protect the health of newborn infants from climate change?"

Professor Mark Hanson, BHF Professor of Human Development and Health, University of Southampton – Dawes Lecture "Development of FNPS: It's a difficult area"

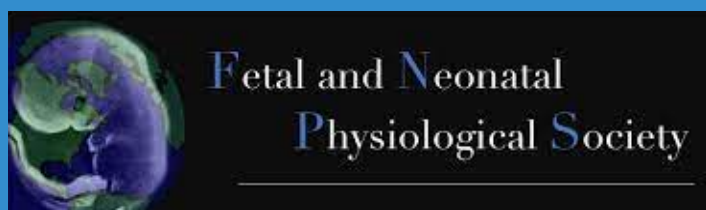

Professor Georg Schmölzer, Professor of Paediatrics, University of Alberta, Canada – "The Science of Newborn Resuscitation"

Assoc. Professor Atul Malhotra, Neonatologist, Monash University, Australia - "Translating Cell Therapies for Newborn Conditions: Where are we and what lies ahead?"

Professor Penny Gowland, Professor of Physics, University of Nottingham – "Discovering and advancing fetal care with novel MRI studies"

Professor Eleanor Molloy, Professor of Paediatrics and Child Health, Trinity College Dublin, Ireland – "Therapeutic strategies for term and preterm brain injury: What does and doesn't help?"

Assoc. Professor Beth Allison, Fetal Scientist, Hudson Institute, Australia – "Cardiovascular structure and function associated with fetal growth restriction"

Programme Highlights

- Buffet lunch and all refreshments
- World class keynote speakers
- Workshops
- More than 60 oral abstracts slots (abstract submission opens soon)
- Early Career Researcher Prize session with £500 prize for winning abstract
- Society team competition (included in registration) with prizes
- Networking BBQ in the flagship Trent Building
- Gala conference dinner
- CPD points and certificate
- Track sessions including: Cardiovascular, Respiratory, Delivery Room Care, Brain, Parental Health, Early NICU Care, Imaging
- All for <£80/day for ECRs who sign up early!

Hotel Options

The designated conference hotel is Jubilee Conference Hotel (pictured below) which has a discounted cost £120 single occupancy with breakfast – use code Medicine2024! when booking. The hotel is a pleasant 25-minute walk across the University campus to the conference venue. Free parking is available at the University for those registered for the conference.

Nottingham is a thriving city with lots of hotel accommodation to suit all budgets. Below are some of the key hotels with typical costs for 1 night, single occupancy without breakfast:

Park Plaza Nottingham (4*) £80 – City Centre
Holiday Inn Nottingham (3*) £85 – 40min walk to venue
Leonardo Hotel (3*) £73 – next to train/tram stations
St James Hotel (3/4*) £54 – City Centre
Hart's Hotel (4*) £160 – upmarket City Centre
Hilton Nottingham (3/4*) £100 – City Centre

